

Living History Presentations

The Friends of Cape Blanco proudly present their 2009 summer season of Living History Presentations.

Two presentations are slated for the season, and we welcome everyone to join us! Our season begins with State Parks Day, June 6, 2009. House opens at 10 AM with presentations at 11 am, 1:30 PM and 3 PM.

Tea with Jane & Annie:

It's 1907, Jane Hughes and Annie Doyle Hughes are just in from outdoor chores. They sit down to a cup of tea accompanied by cookies. Annie, Jane's daughter-in-law, baked earlier in the day. They discuss the loss of Jane's husband, life on the ranch and other topics of the day such as the recent San Francisco earthquake.

A Conversation with Father Keveny:

Autumn 1909 finds Father Charles Keveny, a new priest to the area, visiting the Hughes family as he makes his way through his parish meeting and learning about the families.
